

A Level Business

Summer Assessment

Set: Induction Day July

Deadline: Lesson 1, September

The following BRC members are signatories to A Better Retailing Climate

You will need to write a short report. It should be handwritten and be a minimum of 2 sides of A4 in length. The report should be based on the following:

1. Title: Is the UK retail sector in crisis?
2. Present arguments to show that the retail sector is performing well (use examples from a range of news sources)
3. Present arguments to show that the retail sector is performing badly (with examples)
4. Write a brief conclusion, giving your opinion on the general state of retailing now and whether or not it can improve in future.

You should spend approximately 5 hours in total on this assignment.

You are required to investigate news stories using the business news section of www.bbc.co.uk/news and any other news sources.

If you have any queries please email gina.sullivan@mv16.org.uk

See you in September!

